

Where do you fall on the sliding scale?

We acknowledge there are countless factors in determining your own personal financial experience. The statements below are intended as a place to start as you reflect on what price level might be the best fit for you.

I stress about meeting my basic needs, and don't always achieve them.

I have debt that sometimes keeps me from meeting my basic needs.

I rent a lower-end home, or have unstable housing.

I have limited or no access to a car.

I am unemployed or underemployed.

I qualify for government assistance, such as food stamps and health care.

I have no access to savings.

I rarely buy new things, as I am unable to afford them.

I can't take time off without facing financial burden.

$105/year***

I may stress about meeting my basic needs, but still regularly achieve them.

Any debt I have does not prohibit attainment of basic needs.

I own my home, or rent a higher-end property.

I own or lease a car.

I am employed.

I have access to health care.

I might have access to financial savings.

I can buy some new things, and I thrift others.

I can take vacation every few years without financial burden.

$140/year

I am comfortably able to meet all of my basic needs.

Any debt I have does not prohibit attainment of basic needs.

I own my own home.

I own or lease a car.

I am employed or do not need to work to meet my needs.

I have access to health care.

I have access to financial savings.

I can always buy new things.

I can afford regular vacation or time off.

$175/year

*Payment plan available! Call 503-234-4077 to learn more.